Dear Speaker Pelosi, Leader McCarthy, Leader Schumer, and Leader McConnell:

On behalf of the undersigned higher education associations, we write to urge Congress to pass legislation to provide permanent protection for Dreamers—young, undocumented, high-achieving individuals brought to our country as children—during the last weeks of the 117th Congress. Recent court rulings against the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program, which protects hundreds of thousands of eligible Dreamers, underscore the urgency for Congress to protect Dreamers, who have been living in continuous uncertainty.

Recent decisions by a Texas federal district court and by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals declaring the DACA program illegal have left some Dreamers in a devastating legal limbo. While these recent court decisions allow current DACA recipients to renew their status for now, Congress must pass legislation to protect them and the many other Dreamers who are not DACA-eligible.

As you know, Dreamers contribute substantially to the U.S. economy. According to Cato Institute estimates, deporting those with DACA protection would cost over $92.9 billion in lost tax revenue and would cost the U.S. economy over $351 billion over the next decade.<sup>1</sup> Colleges and universities have seen these remarkable people up close, in our classrooms and as our colleagues and friends. Despite the challenges they face, Dreamers have made incredible contributions to our country and its economy and security. If we are unable to protect them, we will be shutting the door to an entire generation of individuals who wish to be part of our American story.

Since 2001, we have seen bipartisan efforts to pass legislation to protect Dreamers. In Congress and across the nation, there is widespread and bipartisan support for doing just that. We strongly urge Congress to take action in the 117th Congress to protect Dreamers.
